

Not sure which charity to choose?

Here are 3 steps to help you find the power of your giving

Don't see your favorite charity listed?

Try searching online at ncsecc.org

If your favorite charity isn't on this year's campaign list, encourage them to apply for 2017.

Charities can learn more about the application process and requirements under "For Charities" on the SECC website (ncsecc.org).

Application materials for 2017 will be available in November 2016.

Your donation to a cause that's important to you is your personal Power of Giving!

1

Start by asking yourself, "What's important to me?"

Think about people in your life, your hobbies and interests, and things you would like to change or are concerned about.

Review the Charity Listing in the Giving Guide or visit NCSECC.org and search by type of service to find charities that match your interests.

2

You can review charity descriptions by visiting NCSECC.org or the charity's website to learn more.

Select your charity and fill out your pledge form or pledge online (ePledge).

3

Regular payroll deduction is a great way to increase the power of your giving without putting too big of a dent in your wallet at one time.
